North River Presbytery Hears Encouraging Reports of Work Accomplished During Past Year at Meeting Here.

GAIN AND LOSS

Sunday Schools Show Gain of 251 in Memberships, Churches Show Loss of 38 Members.

That the churches of the Presbytery of North River have weathered the depression years was shown in the annual reports made at the spring meeting of the Presbytery on Tuesday in the first Presbyterian Church on Elmendorf street. The 30 Sunday schools in the Presbytery reported a net gain of 251 in memberships during the past year, while the churches showed a loss of 38 members in the Presbytery. Both a morning and afternoon session was held, and at noon dinner was served the delegates in the church hall by the ladies of the entertaining church. At the afternoon session the first business taken up was the selection of commissioners to the General Assembly to be held in Cincinnati in The Rev. Benjamin C. Bentley of Wassaic and the Rev. Jonathan Greenleaf of Salt Point with the Rev. Everett J. LaCompte of Marlborough as the alternate were the ministers selected to represent the Presbytery while the laymen selected were Sumner Simmons of Poughkepsie and George H. Wade of Freedom Plains with W. Kenneth Kukuk of Kingston and Bedford Marshall of Newburgh as alternates.

Presbytery Numbers 6088

The Rev. Arthur James submitted report on the membership of the churches in the Presbytery which showed that the total membership of the churches in the Presbytery was 6,088; a falling of 38 from the membership of last year which was Finances Stand Up

Mid-Hudson Free Port Bill Goes to Governor

Albany, April 17 (Special)-During its last minute passage of bills the assembly at dawn this morning discharged from the rules committee Senator Arthur H. Wicks's bill to prolong the life of the mid-Hudson Free Port Authority and change the boundary limitations to include Ulster county and further increase the membership of the commission by one member to be appointed by the governor upon nomination of the mayor of Kingston,

This bill now goes before the governor for signature, as it was passed in the senate several weeks ago. Action by the assembly was unanimous.

Senator Wicks and Assemblyman J. Edward Conway worked for this measure to include Ulster county as having a possible point along its border on the Hudson river for the port in question, and it is gratifying to local merchants and tradesmen that this bill has been passed by both houses of the legislature. An appropriation of ,000 goes with it for expenses of the survey. Although the members appointed to the commission serve without pay.

8 Inches of Snow Blocks The Highway at Pine Hill

At 2:30 o'clock this morning word was sent out to the Ulster County Highway Department calling for a truck and snow plow to open the highway at Pine Hill. Eight inches of snow was blocking the road and holding up traffic. County Superintendent of Highways James F. Loughran dispatched a truck to the scene and the route was cleared. Another truck was sent out over the Minnewaska Trail in the Shawangunks

The calendar says April 17 and long ago spring arrived but Old Man Winter has lingered in the vicinity and scattered several snowstorms over the mountain sections. Sunday, April 14, there was a skiing party at Pine Hill enjoying the ski run. It is reported that there was still 18 inches of snow along the run. A few days ago 15 inches of snow fell at Tannersville in the Catskills and highways in that locallty were blocked. Only a few days ago the county highway department sent out trucks and snowplows to clear the roads from Shandaken over Pine Hill and on Minnewaska Trail a foot of snow was plowed off to permit traffic to pass. In Kingston last night and early this morning a heavy wet snow fell, covering trees and presenting a scene of winter. At least an inch of snow covered the ground shortly after midnight but practically all had gone at an early hour this morning when a warmer wave spread over the city.

The structure has been erected of steel ribs, paint and cement at the Washington zoo for the benefit of the sueep -which in their native habit like to leap from crag to crag. But the sheep won't go near the PWA mountain. It first was tried on a tribe of Sardinian mouflons but the moufions scorned it. Then Dr. William M. # OF GEORGE V

3. Women's Suffrage a Problem

One of the problems which King George V, celebrating this year his silver jubilee, inherited from the reign of Edward VII was agitation for women's suffrage. It flares to its chief height in 1910-12 under the leadership of this mild-looking lady, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst. With her daughters. Sylvia and Christabel, she rallied suffragettes to march on parliament, chain themselves to gallery seats, smash windows, and generally upset English ideas of decorum. But they won the vote and today Lady Nancy Astor sits in the House of Commons.

Rumors of an impending crash in the seven-year-old romance of John Barrymore and Dolores Costello have given Hollywoodites a new cause for tongue-wagging. Regardless of what may happen, film dopesters have agreed that there is a very good possibility the screen may soon again see the blue-eyed, orown-haired Dolores.

THE TVA SITUATION.

It is natural that there should be differences of opinion, political and economic, about the government's Tennessee Valley enterprise. Private power companies in that region naturally regard it as an intrusion. Power interests generally fear the effect of such an example. It can hardly be said, though, that the cross-examination of David E. Lillenthal, TVA director, before a congressional committee, as reported by the Associated Press, produced anything very alarming to ordinary citizens.

The TVA's monthly payroll, it developed, is $1,000,000, and will continue at that figure for three years longer. Land is bought at an average cost of $50 an acre. The primary objective, Mr. Lillenthal said, is not the manufacture and sale of electric power, but flood control and prevention of soil erosion. He denled the charge that the TVA has tried to bring industries from other regions to the Tennessee Valley. with the bait of cheap power. Bobby was a nice child, but so handicapped by his mother's fears that other boys would not play with him. He was sure to break up any game or expedition with a "Mother won't let me." She had no notion of how she limited the child. She thought only that she was safeguarding him and so protecting his life and health.

But what are life and health for save to be used? One might hoard millions in some hidden spot, but unless the money was used one might as well not have it. The same thing is true of life. The child who is taught to value life and limb too highly is apt to become unable really to live, because from the outset it has been taught false values, and in addition made afraid of taking risks.

It is hard for some parents to accept the fact that if a child is to grow up contageous and able to cope with life it must be allowed again and again to risk its safety. The child's whole happiness depends on not enting too great a value on the very thing the parents would sacrifice their lives and happiness to protect.

Perhaps it is the hardest lesson parents have to learn, and it is an ever-recurring one. First they must watch the child stagger across the voom in imminent danger of falling or striking its bend; then they must watch it climb, learn to swim, may dangerous cames. Next it may drive war of take to flying. Perhaps then it matries on nothing at all or tries an uncongenial job, it is a neverending beart-ache, but a mecrosary pert of percuthons.

ANASHINGTON—If there ever had been any doubt in the minds of administration leaders (and there hasn't) that Carter Glass of Virginia must be reckoned with, it was removed during the final stages of the $4.880,000,000 work-reilef bill in congress.

The Virginian's insistence that one-third of the loans made under the bill go for labor gave "new dealers" some of the most anxious moments they have had in a long time. In the end he had to compromise. but it was a clear case of the administration yielding to his demands. He has prevented the purchase with government funds of operating private power and gas plants.

Stubborn Conference IT has been a long time since capito! hill has seen such a stubborn and prolonged conference on a piece of legislation as that on the workrelief measure.

One of the most dramatic incidents of the whole thing came at the last and is an excellent illustration of what Glass can do when aroused.

It was when Bucksaan of Texas. chairman of the appropriations committee of the house and one of the conferees, maneuvered the senate conferees into a position where it appeared they were opposing action taken by the senate. Glass became indignant.

. . . Suggested Alternative

IE took into the conference room a copy of the bill as originally passed by the senate. This bill didn't contain the controversial labor provision, but some provisions which, when merely mentioned, makes the hair of administration leaders stand on end. The Thomas silver inflation section is typical.

If the gentlemen of the house, Glass said to the conferees in effect, liked the senate version of the bill so well, then let them adopt the senate bill in toto.

It struck like a bombshell, Glass chucklingly related afterwards. The

L. Trudeau.

At the end of the century the conviction was slowly becoming fixed that rest cures the lung. The whole modern treatment of tuberculosis is founded upon this conception. The inevitable decline and restored to first quarter of the twentieth century has seen many ingenious applications of this principle of local rest to the lung in the cure of tuberculosis. The specialist in diseases of the lung, deighted at the improvement often following artificial pneumothorax, but many times thwarted in its application, racks his brain to devise other satisfactory methods of producing

Since it is impossible to suspend voluntary movement of one lung, thereby giving rest to that lung, and since the lungs are situated within the more or less unyielding bony framework of the ribs, and finally since the disease may involve both lungs and frequently causes adhesions between the lung and the chest wall from which it is usually fully separable, no one method of producing rest is universally applicable or uniformly beneficial. Rare judgment born of large experience must be used to determine the best method of securing rest for the lung in any particular case.

The methods of resting the diseased lung may be either medical or Medical methods are in general simple, inexpensive, easily applicable, temporary in action harmless, requiring only a large measure of patience and finally readily controllable. Surgical methods on the other hand while they are more expensive, not so easily applied, nor so readily controlled are more permanent and more effective in result. West Shokan, April 17.-Sunday afternoon George Glies, of Shokan, was witness to the brutal attack of a deer by two dogs, believed half- and 8.508 units of starved and wild. The deer, too fatigued to leap to safety within the enclosure of the reservoir property, was cornered by the dogs, who were tearing at the animal's entrails. The deer was bleating in agony.

Mr. Giles hurried to the rescue of the animal and drove the tormentors away. He then proceeded to notify nearby residents, one of whom shot the wounded deer. Conservation authorities were called by telephone and removed the carcass. A watch of several hours was kept for the return of the dogs, but they did not reappear.

NEW LIGHTING ATTRACTS FAVORABLE COMMENT HERE of Mombaccus.

A new development in lighting equipment, "Bet-R-Lite", recently installed in the Kingston Tea Gardens is attracting much favorable comment from customers of that popular resort.

Bet-R-Lite units have a distinctively modern appearance, adding considerably to the decoration of and assisted his father, Nelson Bell the establishment. Moreover, they furnish glareless, even illumination without the slightest semblance of shadow, that adds greatly to the comfort of those enjoying the facilties of the Kingston Tea Gardens.

M. J. Gallagher, responsible for this installation, said this morning, stead Sunday. "It has always seemed to me that people will enjoy themselves far more if they are relieved from the Charles O. Davis and Chester Lyons the illumination is comfortable and adequate there is less strain on the nerves and relieves tension greatly. I personally think that good lighting is one of the most important ele ments missing from most business establishments today."

Events Around The Empire State

Saratoga Springe, N. Y., April 13 P.—Alexander F. Cameron, an eider of the Second Presbyterian Church at Amsterdam, today is the new moderator of the Albany Presbyters. He was chosen at a meeting here renterday.

Washington, April 17 (AP).--Tentative plans were under way here today for President Roosevelt and Secretary of War George H. Dern, to attend the massed army maneuvers to be held at Pine Camp, near Water town, N. Y., August 17 to 31.

White House activities in late August will govern the President's plan, it was announced. Secretary Dorn said last night he had discussed attendance at the maneuvers with Major General Dennis Nolan, commander of the First Army, and had told him he would go to Pine Camp if possible.

Watertown, N. Y., April 17 (A),-Blue Eagle insignias today were missing from the plumbing establishments of all but one concern, as the result of a decision handed down by the Regional NRA Compliance Board. The action followed refusal of Watertown plumbers to pay the NRA scale.

Albany, N. Y., April 17 (AP).-The constitutionality of the State Department of Agriculture and Markets law preventing dealers in unadvertised rands of milk, licensed after April 10, 1933, from selling their milk at prices below those fixed by the state milk control board was upheld youerday by the Court of Appeals.

The ruling was given as the court denied an application of the Mayflower farms. Inc., for a license to sell milk at a price under that of four large dealers in New York city. The application was dealed because the firm secured its license after April 10, 1933,

BABIES OR BURGLARS?

Today about 500 babies will be born in New York State. Telephones will go into action, summoning doctors and nurses, spreading the glad news, ordering flowers and voicing good wishes.

Having a baby is one of the thousands of things that can hardly be done today without the telephone.

So many things—from having babies to burglars—happen at unexpected hours. That's why, unlike most businesses, the telephone system can never close, day or night, in good times or bad. Every minute in every hour of the twenty-four it's ready and waiting to help you reach anybody, anywhere, any time-and to help anyone reach you. New York Telephone Company.

Housing Loans for $51,000,000 approved

There is a marked increase in the bullding trades throughout the United States, according to a recent report of the Federal Housing Ad-Through the Middle West and the Southern portion of the United States a marked increase in building activity was reported.

About 60 per cent of this increase is in the building and remodeling of small homes. The Federal Housing Administration has approved 122,-296 loans for modernization with a total outlay of over $51,000,000,

The National Association of Real Estate Boards in a survey found 76 per cent of the cities reported a normal condition in housing with no surplus of homes at the end of 1932 despite the doubling up of families that existed.

53 Per Cent Shortage

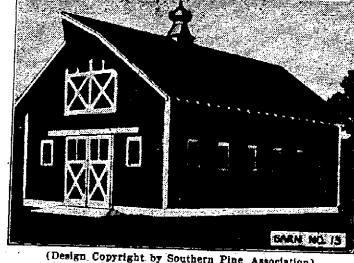

At the end of 1924 the number reporting a normal condition had dropped to 42 per cent; 53 per cent reported an actual shortage in housing, and only a small group of 5 per cent reported overage. The rents if dwellings were reported to he on the upgrade in 53 per cent of the cities, stationary in 38 per cent and on the down grade is only 9 per cent.

The Federal Housing Administration attributes the acceptance of the general public to the modernization of homes and to the purchasing of long term credit. Many of the financial institutions of Greater New York which own one and two family homes in the suburba are remodeling these homes with upto-date design and which when finished should offer splendid home-buying opportunities for those who may be interested.

Broadway: "Little Colonel." Shirley Temple proves to be a master at the art of tap dancing during the course of this delightful picture, as it tells the story of a child's ability 10 reconciliate her mother and grandfather who have been estranged for years. In fact, little Miss Temple shines in every department and the entire show is one of the most enjoyable offerings to come out of the Hollywood film shops in months. There is a good measure of tart humor in this talkie, and the acting is far above the average because of the excellence of the play-The scenes are laid in the south of 1870 and the warmth and hospitality of the old south are glowingly pictured. Bill Robinson, the famous tap dancing artist, almost enatches the picture with an unusually agreeable performance, and little Miss Temple's imitation of his dancing is one of the high spots of the picture. Lionel Barrymore is excellent as always in the role of the grumpy grandfather and John Lodge and Evalyn Venable are also well cast. The production was directed by David Butler.

HOLLYWOOD - The "erudite stuffed-shirt" came to life-and so did William Powell's career in the

Just before he began making "The Thin Man," Powell was sure the new characterization would be a departure from previous detective roles he had played,

After the film was exhibited, not only Powell but his fans were sure. Powell left a contract behind him to tread the uncertain path of the free-lance star," He had played virtually the same role in so many pictures, he said, that he was sure fans were tired of him, in particular he disliked continuing his portrayals of Philo Vance, that "erudite stuffed shirt," as Powell called him.

Didn't Mind Detectives

And he signified his willingness to play detectives-other than Philo Vance-by going into "The Thin Man." The result was that immedistely he was sought for more pictures than he could do in a year, even without a vacation, and was offered another contract so lucrative he could not afford to reject it.

When Richard Barthelmess, his friend, telephoned one day to suggest a get-together, Powell ex-plained his inability to emerge from study with the information that he "had been holding scripts so long his arms were paralyzed." All the producers, after "The Thin Man," were rushing him scripts to read.

Almost 'Washed Up'

For an actor who a year ago was on the way to the producers' bathhouse-where actors are "washed up." as the Hollywood expression is-that is considered remarkable. One of Paramount's biggest stars in the early talkies. Bill Powell was "raided" by a rival studio which for the most part gave him poor stories in which to star. The result was that both Powell and the studio became dissatisfied, if Powell had stuck by an earlier decision to retire, he would not have cared. He struck out on his own, as a free-lance, with the one purpose-to retain his "market value" as a ster.

Powell admits he likes to play. but is not for all play and no work. Once he thought he would retire and live on the Riviera. Instead be has built a new home near Hollywood, and he intends to keep on working in pictures, indefinitely,

"I've decided that playboys have to be born," he says, "One can't work for years and then suddenly acquire the knack. What really decided me to give up the idea of retiring was a trip I made abroad. I discovered that I didn't know what to do with leisure-or that I certainly wouldn't know what to do with too much of it. So the only hing for me to do is to settle down Hollywood and keep on working."

Mrs. Kingman Heads Presbyterian Women

Mrs. William C. Kingman was elected president of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Rondout Presbyterian Church at the annual meeting held! on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. J. Helselman on West Chestnut street. The other officers elected were: Vice presidents, Mrs. C. J. Heiselman and Mrs. John B. Sterley; secretary, Mrs. Charles Terwilliger, and treasurer, Mrs. Louis

The reports of the officers showed that the society had enjoyed an active and prosperous year,

Another important matter taken up at the meeting was setting the dates for the annual turkey dinner and fair of the church which will be held in the chapel of the church on November 12 and 13.

CCC Camp Sec "The Little Colonel" The entire personnel of Company 215, Camp 2, Boiceville, N. Y., were privileged to see "The Little Colonel", starring Shirley Temple and Lionel Barrymore. The state trucks transported the men to the Broadway Theatre Tuesday evening. After the show the boys were transported back to camp where refreshments were served. The members of the CCC are grateful to Bob Hall and Bert Gildersleeve, managers of the Broadway Theatre, for allowing them to be the guests of the management.

Why You Should Never Cut a Corn

If you are troubled with corns or cal-louses, do not run the risk of blood poison by paring them. Statistics show that many infections have occurred from this seemingly innocent practice of paring corns.

seemingly innocent practice of paring corns.

Simply go to your drugglat and get a few cents worth of fee-Mint, rub a little on any painful even or callons, tunned, attery the pain will disappear and in a short time the corn or callons will loosen and iff off easily with the fingers—root and aff—leaving the surrounding skin in a healthy normal condition.

This, logother with the fact that fee-Mint overcomes such affections as sore, bred, aching, puffed or lorning feet and makes them cool, casy and comfortable, is probably responsible for the hearty endorsement given it by drugglats.

To rid one's feet of every hard corn, soft corn, corn between the tees or painful callonness in such a pleasant and safe way, tankes it seem the helphy of foily for any one to pare a corn and people are warned to zoop it.—Adv.

DROUGHT BELIEVED 'WORSE THAN A YEAR AGO'

Current government reports from Washington indicate the drought on the vast western plains is "worse than a year ago." This map prepared by the department of agriculture shows prevalent conditions: 80 and over, good to excellent; 65 to 80, poor to fair; 50 to 65, very poor; 35 to 50, severe drought; under 35, extreme drought. 1. Ickes Is Veteran "Oppositionist":

This is the first of a series four daily articles sketching the personalities of four men who will have charge of spending the $5,000,-000,000 appropriated for federal work-relief.

By WILLIAM S. WHITE

Washington (A)-The square-faced man of many titles. Harold L. Ickes. assigned to still more work in helping to run the $5,000,000,000 workrelief machinery, will break a fance with any man, anytime and anvwhere.

The great oppositionist of the past, he is as well the great antitheais to the backslapper in politics. He's been fighting all his life. usually in causes so hopeless they seemed almost Quixotic, and it has become a pleasant habit, something like his great hobby which-or all things—is growing dahlias.

Ickes is known as an acid-tongued liberal. At 61 he has been a campaigner for three parties and a "regular" in none, and once it was uncharitably said that he had rather be disagreeable than pleasant, even if it made no difference anyhow. But despite this, his uncompromising worship at the one great shrine of his life-honesty-has brought public bouquets from men who agree with him on little else in all the world. This quality, and his great loyalty, is regarded by many as his chief attribute for his new job.

and bandies about the sharpest Democraticphrases of any man in Washington official lire. His sense of humor, a matter of open pride with him, is so irrepressible that he dares to joke publicly not only with himself but sometimes with his chief, President Roosevelt. ## BARBARA BELL FASHION PATTERNS

Pattern No. 1636-B

Chic Summer Frock in Polka-Dot Print

Street frocks, daytime frocks, town frocks, call them what you will, these in-between-frocks are important in the summer wardrobe. The one in the accompanying sketch is characterized by just enough simplicity to interest the woman who has smart but thrifty inclinations.

It has a distinctly new silhouette. The skirt does a good job at slimming the figure and the bodice is charmingly finished with a duplex collar at the side of which nestles a modish bunch of purple violeta.

In line with the trend toward originality in street frocks this one is made with front and back openings and a circular pepium that is short but important. It has a high and squared neckline that achieves a youthful look by having white contrast in the collar. Kimona sieeres are finished with narrow cuffs that turn back. The skirt is in two gores and has superlatively slender lines,

Hoover Endeavoring to Revitalize the G.O.P.

Washington, April 17 (A).- The Washington Post says that former President Hoover on his recent travels about the country has been inspiring plans to revitalize the Republican party in advance of the 1936 campaign.

The apparent result, the paper adds, will be five regional conventions at which members of the G.O.P. will attack the New Deal and adopt declarations of principles to provide the basis for next year's platform. Regional meetings already have been arranged at Boston, Baltimore and Kansas City. Another has been proposed to get together the Republican leaders of Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee. Ohio, Wisconsin and Michigan. A fifth rally has been suggested in the far west. "Mr. Hoover's present efforts, according to his friends, do not necessarily imply that he is seeking another nomination," the Post says, "For the time being, they say, he is concerned not so much about his own future as he is about the future of

"He feels, they explain, that as the titular leader of the Republican party, it is his duty to work for its rehabilitation."

The paper points out that the former President recently met Governor Nice of Maryland and a number of other Republican leaders, including Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., at a fishing camp near Thurmond, Md. Recent conferences between Mr. Hoover and publishers in West Virginia and Ohio also are cited.

After fishing with the ex-President,

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF MARTIN CANTINE.

The members of the State Charlles Aid Association for Ulster County learned with keenest regret of the death of Martin Cantine, for many years vice president. Mr. Cantine's interest in the work of the committee had extended over a period of many years, and the sup-port of a man of his sound judgment, sympathetic understanding. kindness of heart, and liberality, was of immeasurable help to the unfortunate under our care, and of great encouragement to others interested in the efforts of the committee. We therefore recommend, that this report be made part of the permanent records of this committee, copies sent to Mrs. Cantine and Mr. Holly Cantine, and published. Respectfully submitted this 12th

Polo and Songs Part Of Crazy Albany Antics

Albany, N. Y., April 17 (P)-The polo game on the Senate floor early today ended before the first chucker had been played out,

One of the participants was thrown riolently during a close play, when his mount lost a caster.

Ruled out of order, the player demanded a recount on a point of high personal privilege, but the motion was lost. Whereupon the chamber resolved itself into a committee of the whole, to hear "Mother Machree" in the usual high tenor. Meanwhile, on the other side of the capitol, Assemblyman Laurens M. Hamilton's bill to further the cause of honest music well-played was passed unanimously, and Assemblyman Abbot Low Moffat sang "on The Road to Mandalay."

The crazy antics were a part of the 1935 New York legislature's tarewell. The Assembly broke the ice last night during the long recess just before the closing session. While controversy monopolized the time of the leaders behind closed doors, their colleagues made the most of the ong wait. As if from nowhere, an improrised orchestra appeared in the Assembly, and presio, there was song and laughter, where a few hours before the Republicans had assailed Governor Lehman and Senate Leader John J. Dunnigan.

The Senate was much slower to drop the cloak of dignity. Senate pages appointed themselves court jesters, and two secretaries to high officials started the polo game on roller-chairs. It was only after somebody start-

By a peculiar coincidence Brooklyn scored a similar number of points against Philadelphia Hebrews in the playoff halves: series for the second half honors in the same number of games. In the present contests between Visitations and the Jewels the uncanny accuracy of Bob McDermott of Brooklyn in scoring from the field has been the outstanding feature. Matchmaker John J. Finerty, Jr. has announced the bouts for the next card of fights at the Municipal Auditorium, April 26, featuring in boxers from Kingston and vicinity.

"It is my intention to give the fans the Boys they know and like-te see in action", said Finerty in hard ing the list of scraps to the pres These pugilists, all of whom bare been seen in action here before should pack 'em in I think and sire plenty of action to the customers" Because none of the pugillsts from this vicinity were members of the Adirondack A. A. U. when the fire Whitaker 172 140 162-474 two cards were put on for the American Legion welfare fund, there was no local color. Now that boxers from these parts are signing up in the organization, fans who stay away unless their favorites are on the bill should find a reason to attend the bouts.

On the 26th Finerty will trot out the six local leather slingers headed by Adam Unverzagt, Ellenville star, who used to pack em in when the simon-pures fought here before The others are Joe Turck, Ralph North, Battling Lurie, Kid Taylor and Tommy Sickler. The matches:

Main Event Tony Restifo, 151, Albany, 78 Benny Ross, 147, Mechanicsville.

Semi-Final An Eventful Life High game-Keystone Stations, Larry Kellum, 147. Oneonta, Joe Haluska, 145, East Berne. Larry Kellum, 147. Oneonia, vi. 5 Round Special Stopped The Fargo Express After 25 fights, he met Billy Petrolle here when the "Fargo Express" was pounding along under full steam, and won a technical knockout. From then on he was a drawing card. Among the fights that followed were two with Ray Miller, the southpaw killer, at Detroit, and one with Tony Canzoneri at New York. in which Grogan floored Canzoneri for two nine counts. His first bout with Miller was the most sensational in his career. Tommy knocked Ray down five times in the second round, but Miller had rubber in his shoulders that night and bounced right back up. In the fourth round, Miller connected with one of his famous left hooks and the fight ended abruptly.
